Shenae is passionate about helping her clients achieve their goals and strongly believes there is no "one size fits all" approach to this. She has a genuine interest in getting to know her clients so that she can provide nutrition advice to meet their individual needs. Shenae utilises an evidence-based, holistic and client-centered approach to practice. She has always had a strong passion for the effect food has on our bodies and translating these messages to her clients to improve their health, well-being and quality of life. Shenae has experience working with clients from different backgrounds and across a range of clinical areas.
